SECTION III: SHORT ANSWERS

Short answers should be approximately 300 words each.

- 1) Participating in the CPIC-Heckscher Fund for Service Internship (FSI) Program requires a significant commitment to CPIC, the Heckscher Foundation, your fellow Interns, and the organization, children, and youth you serve. What excites you about the program, and why do you want to participate in it?
- 2) How would working in a CPIC-Heckscher Fund for Service Internship (FSI) fit in with your future personal and professional goals? How do you expect to benefit personally and professionally from working in a nonprofit organization that serves children and youth?
- 3) What knowledge, skills, and abilities would you bring to an Internship at a nonprofit organization that serves children? What would you bring to the program as a whole?

SECTION IV: FINANCIAL NEED STATUS

All students who will be returning to campus in the fall are eligible to participate in the CPIC-Heckscher Fund for Service Internship (FSI) Program. However, applicants must demonstrate financial need (whether through receipt of financial aid or through a self-declaration) in order to be selected. If candidates do not currently receive financial aid directly from Harvard College, they can submit a self-declaration of financial need (See question two below).

(Mandatory) 1) Do you receive financial aid directly from Harvard College? (Please note that CPIC will verify this information with the Harvard College Office of Financial Aid. If you haven't questions about this, please contact Leanne Gaffney at gaffney@fas.harvard.edu or (617) 495-3321.)

Yes or No

(Optional) 2) If you do not receive financial aid from Harvard College, you may submit a self-declaration of financial need. (Your declaration should not exceed 300 words.)
